YESTERDAY.
Reception to veterans and visitors at Confederate Museum, 5 to 7 P. M. Sponsors' hall at Horse Show Building at 9 P. M.
TODAY.
Luncheon at Lee Camp Soldiers' Home at 1 P. M.
Reception for distinguished ladies in Woman's Club from 5 to 7 P. M.
Public reception for veterans and visitors at Executive Mansion from 8:30 to 11 P. M.

For Distinguished Visitors.
Members of the Woman's Club will be hostesses at a charming reception this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock in honor of the distinguished Confederate women who are attending the reunion.

Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, Mrs. William Mahone, Mrs. Lucy Lee Hill Macgill, Miss Mary Custis Lee, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart, regents of the Confederate Museum, State division presidents of the Daughters of the Confederacy, officers of the Jefferson Davis Monument Association, sponsors and maids of honor and other distinguished women will be among the invited guests.

Owing to limited space, admission will be by card only, and visitors' cards will not be good for this occasion. Decorations will be in red and white, and the usual charming hospitality of the club will make this a notable event of reunion week.

Informal Reception.
Miss Mary Custis Lee, honorary president of the Home for Needy Confederate Women, Mrs. Andrew Jackson Montague, acting president, and the ladies of the board extend a cordial invitation to the veterans and visiting members of Confederate organizations to attend an informal reception at the home, No. 3 East Grace Street, this afternoon, from 4 to 7 o'clock.

The ladies of the home will be glad to greet their old-time friends, and Captain Sally Tompkins, who has been an inmate of the home for the past year, will be especially glad to renew old acquaintance, with any who may have come under her ministrations during her period of service at her hospital, conducted from '61 to '65 in this city.

Missouri Party Here.
Mrs. John Francis Davis, of Kansas City, Mo., is chaperon for the sponsors and maids from Missouri.
Her party of young girls has attracted much attention on account of their beauty and wit, and they are always the centre of a pleasant coterie in the third balcony at the Jefferson, where they hold an informal levee each evening.

Mrs. Davis is president of Stonewall Jackson Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, of Kansas City, Mo., the largest chapter in her State, with a membership of 130. She is the daughter of the late Dr. John A. Brooks.
Young ladies in her party are Miss Edith Haydon, sponsor for the Missouri veterans, and Miss Louise Ingram, her maid of honor; Misses Sheffer Vivian, Virginia Vivian, Carlton Williams, Carle Lewis, Ueal Jewell, Sarah B. Morton, Mamie Woods, Maude Golby and Maude Bryan.

Miss Heth Here.
Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, daughter of General Harry Heth and president of the Southern Relief Society, of Washington, is at the Jefferson. She occupied a place of honor in the parade of the Stuart unvailing, and will also be in a carriage in the parade on Monday. She will receive with Mrs. Swanson at the reception to be given in the Executive Mansion this evening.

In Honor of Bride.
Miss Virginia Cabell Baker, of Winchester, whose marriage to Mr. Peter Vredenburgh, of New York, takes place to-day, was guest of honor at a beautiful card party given Wednesday morning by her maid of honor, Miss Frances Peyton Page, of Winchester.
A number of prominent society girls, not only from Winchester, but from other Southern cities, were the guests. An elegant luncheon was served after the game.

At Daughters' Headquarters.
The scenes of Friday were but a continuance of the delightful hours at the "First Aid" to the Bowels

WHEN Heartburn, Sour Stomach, Headache, Bad Breath, coated Tongue, Belching of Stomach, Gas, or any of these forerunners of indigestion appear, Old Dr. Cascaret wants to be right on the spot in your pocket.

Dr. Cascaret guarantees to cure the most obstinate cases of Constipation and Indigestion, without discomfort or inconvenience.

His medicine does not gripe nor purge, but exercises naturally the muscles that line the walls of the Intestines and Bowels.

Want of Exercise weakens and relaxes the Bowel-Muscles, just as it weakens Arm and Leg muscles.

Old Dr. Cascaret goes directly after these Bowel-Muscles. He wakes them up just as a cold bath would wake up a lazy person.

Then he works them (through the nerves) till they get so strong from that Exercise that they don't need any more help to do their duty.

Heavy dinners, late suppers, whiskey, wine or beer drinking, nervous excitement, sudden exposure to cold or heat and a dozen other everyday likelihoods tire the Bowel-Muscles.

In such cases a little Cascaret in time is worth fifty dollars worth of Treatment later on, to say nothing of the suffering, discomfort, loss of Business Energy, and loss of Social Sunshine it saves.

Little thin Cascaret Box, shaped so you don't notice its presence in purse or vest-pocket.

Contains six Candy tablets—Price Ten Cents a Box at any Druggist's.

Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

headquarters of the Daughters of the Confederacy, Murphy's Hotel. The first noticeable feature was the informal luncheon, at which the honored guests were Miss Mary Custis Lee, Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart and granddaughter, little Miss Virginia Waller, and Mrs. William Mahone, the hostess being Mrs. Thomas S. Biscoe. Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, though in the city, was unavoidably absent, which was a cause of regret.

At 3 P. M. there was a reception in the ladies' parlor by the quartet of honorees, during which hundreds of gray-haired veterans passed in line, giving the warm handshake to the daughter and wives of their beloved generals of the sixties. It was an inspiring sight, glad yet pathetic—some veterans still erect, some bowed with years, but all so pleased to meet the honored women who bore the names of their war-time heroes.

A pretty feature was the singing of Southern songs by a chorus of fair maids, who form the choir connected with Pickett-Bachmann Camp, of Portsmouth, and the strains of "Dixie," "Old Kentucky Home" and "Maryland" were greeted with vociferous applause.
It was an occasion long to be remembered. Richmond Daughters are in their element as the hostesses of every Confederate, and all are cordially invited to pay a visit to Mrs. Biscoe and her able assistants at Murphy's.

Personal Mention.
Miss Mary Lynn Conrad, of Harrisonburg, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Conrad, of Sullivane, Minn., are guests of Mrs. Mary Conrad Gentry at No. 101 West Main Street.

Mrs. L. C. Branch, of Norfolk, is the guest of Mrs. Frank Eugene Stacy, No. 126 West Grace Street.

Dr. Ryland Knight delivered an address last night at Chase City, Mecklenburg county, at the county convention of the Young Men's Christian Association. He will return to this city to-day, and will occupy his pulpit to-morrow at the evening service.

WILL BUILD TO RADFORD.

Statesville Air Line Proposes to Extend into New Territory.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RADFORD, VA., May 31.—Ex-Governor Tyler has returned from Statesville, N. C., where he went last week to attend a conference of the officials of the Statesville Air Line Railroad, which is contemplating extending its lines through Southwest Virginia to Radford. The proposed route will come through Floyd, which is rich in minerals and timber, and will probably extend from either Port Royal or Charleston, S. C. If the line is extended to Radford, as now seems very probable, connection would also be made with the Tidewater at Bellspring. It is thought the Statesville Air Line would become the carrier of large quantities of coal, which on the completion of the Panama Canal, will be shipped from Port Royal, which has one of the best harbors on the South Atlantic coast, or from Charleston, which is seeking to become the other terminal. The building of this road with Radford as the northern terminal, would bring an era of prosperity to Radford, and much interest is felt here in the outcome.

Governor Tyler went to Statesville at the request of the president of the Statesville Air Line, Dr. Mott, and seems very sanguine as to the prospect of securing the road for Radford.

FREDERICKSBURG COLLEGE.

Commencement Exercises Open with Primary Department.
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., May 31.—The commencement exercises of Fredericksburg College began last night with the primary department in the college hall, before a large audience. To-night the graduates in the musical department gave a recital. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday night at the Presbyterian Church by Rev. Dr. A. M. Fraser, of Staunton. The commencement proper will close on Wednesday morning next, when diplomas and medals will be awarded. There are a number of graduates this year.

The directors of the Fair Society of this city have largely increased the purses for the races to be held at the annual fair here in September. This is expected to result in the bringing here of a better class of horses.

The monuments in Spotsylvania county, one of the New Jersey troops at Salem Church, and the other to General Hays, near Brock Road, were handsomely decorated yesterday by ladies of the respective localities in which the monuments are situated. Cards have been received here for Indict Dispensary Managers.

ABINGDON, VA., May 31.—The grand jury which adjourned to-day made about eight indictments against the managers of the Abingdon dispensary for selling liquor to minors. This raises a new question for Judge Hutton to decide, should the town or its employees bear the penalty for the alleged violation of law.

HOLLINS COMMENCEMENT.

Dr. Alderman, Dr. Denny and Others to Speak There This Year.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
HOLLINS, VA., May 31.—The commencement at Hollins this year promises, as usual, to be attractive and pleasant. The former students are expected in large number, and a successful year, in some respects the most successful, in the history of the school, will no doubt close with a brilliant commencement. Everybody here has in advance been put into a good humor by the prize offered by the Colonial Dames for the best essay on some colonial subject coming again this year to Hollins. A number of the schools for young women in Virginia try for this prize. Last year Miss Mary Goach Anderson, a daughter of Judge Anderson, of Clifton Forge, won this honor for Hollins. This year a Tennessee girl, Miss Margaret Louise Hall, has won it. She has the choice of either a medal or $40 in money.

The speakers from a distance this year at Hollins will be Dr. E. A. Alderman, president of the University of Virginia; Dr. George H. Denny, president of Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va., and the Rev. Dr. Donald C. MacLeod, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Washington, D. C. Dr. Alderman speaks to the graduating class, Dr. Denny to the literary societies and Dr. MacLeod preaches the sermon.

The elocution department gives this year out on the lawn Saturday evening "Midsummer Night's Dream." The alumnae banquet will take place on Monday night. Mrs. Bagby, of West Point, the president of the Alumnae Association, presides on this occasion. The interest at the banquet this year will center around the proposed "C. L. Cooke Memorial Hall."

The following young ladies expect to take the A. B. degree this year: Miss May Flowers Collins, Birmingham, Ala.; Miss Margaret Louise Hall, Doyersburg, Tenn.; Miss Helen Norvell, Radford, Va.; Miss Anna Montgomery, Campbell, Blacksburg, Va.; Miss Annie Charlotte Darlington, Washington, D. C.; Miss Margaret Pearl Hudson, Luray, Va.; Miss Lucy Goode Puryear, Orange county, Va.

SURPRISE AT UNIVERSITY.

Dr. Barringer Says He Will Accept Presidency of V. P. I.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., May 31.—The election of Dr. Paul Brandon Barringer as the president of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute occasioned some surprise here, for while it was known that his name was being considered, and that his fitness was unquestioned, few were aware that Dr. Barringer was giving the matter any thought. This morning, when seen at his residence at the University, he indicated his purpose to accept. When asked for the reasons which influenced him to leave the University of Virginia, he said:

"I accepted this position of honor because, as I read the signs of a rapidly coming industrial uplift in Virginia, I am convinced that there is no position in the State, no matter how high, that offers equal opportunities of public service."

Convicted for Murder.
ABINGDON, VA., May 31.—The jury in the case of the Commonwealth against Noah Fulton this afternoon brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. About a month ago Noah Fulton and John Johnson got into a difficulty at Grenade, this county, in which Johnson was shot and killed. Both parties were little more than boys, one twenty and the other twenty-one years of age.
